

Overtourism: Grammar Points and Corrections

Some tourists from an Asian country entered local's garden. Another rude behaviors were broadcasted on the news program.

The development of social media and rapidly spread information among users spurred this issue.

According to UNWTO, the number of travelers to Japan is increasing more and more, since 1995, except in the years 2011 and 2012, because of the Fukushima nuclear disaster.

Japan is a fascinated country.

The growing tourist has contributed towards revitalizing the economy. ... The tourists have grown before we are ready to accept them in Japan.

Moreover, instead of Mt. Fuji you could visit a "local Mt. Fuji" or KYODO Fuji.

Japanese government has relaxed visa restrictions. Chinese economy has grown dramatically.

The Tokyo Olympics is a good chance to appeal Japan more as a travel destination.

I'm the most interested in "overtourism".

Japan sees problems of some overseas arrivals going back without paying medical bills. These are caused by having no travel insurance.