

Gender Pay Gap: Grammar Points and Corrections

Corrections/Questions

1) Fill in the blanks:

Thirty years _____ it was 1989.

In thirty years' _____ it will be 2049.

I entered university in 2000. I left four years _____ in 2004.

I entered university in 2000. Two years _____ then in 1998 I was studying in London.

2) Male/female

As adjectives: a female lawyer, a male nurse

As nouns:

"Three males entered the building." vs "Two men entered the building."

"I can see two females over there." vs "I can see two women over there."

What are the differences in nuance?

3) What is the difference?

"to watch", "to see" and "to look"

"He is easy to forget." vs "He easily forgets."

"statistics" vs "evidence"

Grammar Tips

4) "Recent", "recently", "just" are often used with the present perfect or present perfect continuous.

Recently I have eaten a lot of Mexican food.

I have just bought a new car.

5) Graduate

I graduated from university in 2004.